What our employees say..

Debra Taylor
Chartered Legal Executive
Family Law

"I re-joined Richard Reed in May 2020, having left some 17 years previous to progress my career. Since returning I can honestly say I have never been happier in my role. I have never felt more valued. I receive all the help and training I need. The Directors are always accessible and extremely supportive. Everyone works as a team and we are just one big happy family"

Val Pattinson - Receptionist

"I love the variety of my work, every day is different and I get to interact with such a lovely group of people, both staff and clients. Being happy at work and loving the job I do is the reason I have been here so long - I joined in 2002."

ESTABLISHED 1948

RICHARD REED
SOLICITORS

Julie Duncan, Solicitor
Wills, Trusts, Probate &
Court of Protection

"From the moment I joined Richard Reed, I realised what a welcoming and friendly place it was to work. There is such a close family feeling with the staff, and our clients feel it as soon as they walk through the door."

It is such a supportive firm, putting employees first and always welcoming individual opinions. The firm builds great relationships with clients because of the personal, friendly approach but also because of the wealth of experience and expertise of the wonderful people who work here."

Emily Lockey
Legal Assistant
Wills, Trusts & Probate

"I love working at Richard Reed Solicitors because everyone is so lovely. At Richard Reed everyone is friends not just colleagues - its' like having a work family. Everyone is supportive, including the management who are always there should you need to speak to them and are as flexible as they can be to meet any needs you may require. I personally find my job very rewarding and take great satisfaction in it, especially when a client leaves happy!"
